Dear Ms. Linner:

We are in receipt of a letter from Taylor Livestock. Enclosed with the letter was a Time Certificate of Deposit. This letter acts as an Assignment of this Certificate to you to assure the completion of a reclamation project. Mr. Taylor has provided me with a letter from your department to him identifying the project and has asked me to send a copy of the Certificate and a letter of Assignment to you. Those are enclosed.

We trust this will take care of yours and Mr. Taylor's needs.

Sincerely yours,

Don Cook, Manager

Dear Mr. Cook:

Please find enclosed a Time Certificate of Deposit. This letter is to constitute an assignment of this Certificate to the State of Utah, Natural Resources and Energy, Oil, Gas, and Minerals. This Certificate has been endorsed and is to constitute our surety for the completion of reclamation work to the Title Project Cause #ACT-019-016 Winecup Resources, Inc. - Taylor Livestock Mine.

This Certificate is to be held by you in behalf of ourselves and the State of Utah. This certificate is to be held by you until such time the project is completed and authorization is received by you to release the certificate back to you by the State of Utah. If such authorization is not received by you by the time of maturity of the Certificate of October 8, 1983, this Assignment becomes void and the Certificate is to be turned back to us. Should the State of Utah call for the certificate prior to maturity you are authorized to turn it over to them.

Sincerely yours,

Taylor Livestock
